

Amethyst Class

Newsletter

Project Maths and Design/ Technology

Several groups have now completed three seasons of their 'Theme Park' and are calculating their total profits. They have now begun making posters and starting to think about computer designs and models they might create of their park.

Science- Evolution Unit

The children are fascinated with our new science topic and we have started by looking at the Tree of Life and evidence with the fossil record.

