

Amethyst Class Newsletter

Our learning this week... How Can We Make Life Fair?

Maths

This week we have been learning about addition and subtraction strategies. We looked at mental strategies when calculating with decimals and using efficient written methods.

Home Work Share

It was great to have so many excellent examples of Home Learning on display at our share. We enjoyed sharing with each other and the children and staff in Pearl class. The next piece will be due in on the last school week of term 2.

