History

The children are busy working on their Viking projects and we look forward to sharing their home learning on Anglo Saxons in class too.

English

We have finished our class book – Floodland and all the children agreed they have loved it and they were pleased by the surprising ending! They have been busy writing thank you letters to Morfa Bay and writing a book review for Floodland.

Maths

This week we have been working on a Millions Challenge – with interesting questions such as how many minutes old are you? Are you more than a million minutes old?

Sports Day

It was lovely to see you for Sports Day. Amethyst class were very helpful all day and their maturity was commented on by several parents in the infant sports morning.
