Well I can honestly say in 24 years teaching, that this week has been the strangest week in my career! I think I have got my head around remote teaching now and thank you for your patience with sending passwords etc..!

Below are some examples of the fantastic learning you have been doing at home. The new learning for next week goes live on Sunday on Google classroom and will be emailed Sunday too.

My Life In The Blitz

*Running and Running through the smoke I go,
My brown long hair swaying to and throw,
Lost in the fog,
There was no one to be seen,
I needed help for someone to guide me,*

Extract from A. H's excellent poem.
