

Class: Amethyst Date of project Term 3 and 4 2022

Project aims: A project with a History focus. Children will consider the question: Why do people leave their homes? Learning about evacuation and life on the Home Front. They will also get an opportunity to think about what are the reasons people are forced to leave their homes today. They will consider health of children today and in WW2 and compare and contrast with their own lives (cooking wartime recipes – D/T). There will be an Art focus studying abstract art and propaganda posters and creating their own art pieces and musical composition on the theme of 'War'.
