

Crystal Class News

29th June 2018

Welcome to Crystal Class Newsletter:

This week:

We have made our clay animals and they are now awaiting painting. The children have been applying their sculpting and blending skills.

Crystal Class have also been developing their line dancing. Splitting into groups, they have used teamwork to create some very authentic moves

We have also been reviewing our multiplication methods and writing detailed descriptions of our clay farm animals.