

Crystal Class News

18th May 2018

Welcome to Crystal Class Newsletter:

This week:

From last week's attempts at modelling farm animals with playdough, the children progressed on to modelling with plastercine. The children were able to produce more intricate and clear farm animals.

Ben gave the class a lesson on planting sunflower seeds. The children cannot wait to see them starting to grow.