

Diamond Class Newsletter

This week we have started planning our podcasts, gathering facts about palm oil, the impact of deforestation and the impact on the lives of the orangutans. In English, we have been learning about persuasive devices in preparation for writing speeches about saving the orangutans. Finally, we spent an afternoon exploring the app GarageBand which we'll use to record and edit the final podcasts.

Dates for the diary:

- Tuesday 9th December at 2pm and Thursday 11th December at 9:30am - Y3/4 Christmas Performances.
- You are invited to our end of project outcome – Save the orangutan campaigns –on Thursday 18th December at 9:15. We will share posters, podcasts and all our other topic learning.

Coming up next week - Learning	Way to support at home
Next week in maths we will be finding factors of numbers. In English, we will be using a range of techniques to persuade. We will be writing persuasive speeches about the plight of the orangutans in the rainforests.	• Read at least 5 times a week. Please ensure reading is recorded in the reading record books each week. • Mathletics • TTRS - regular practise is vitally important. In class we are currently working on the 4x table.
