

21.03.2025

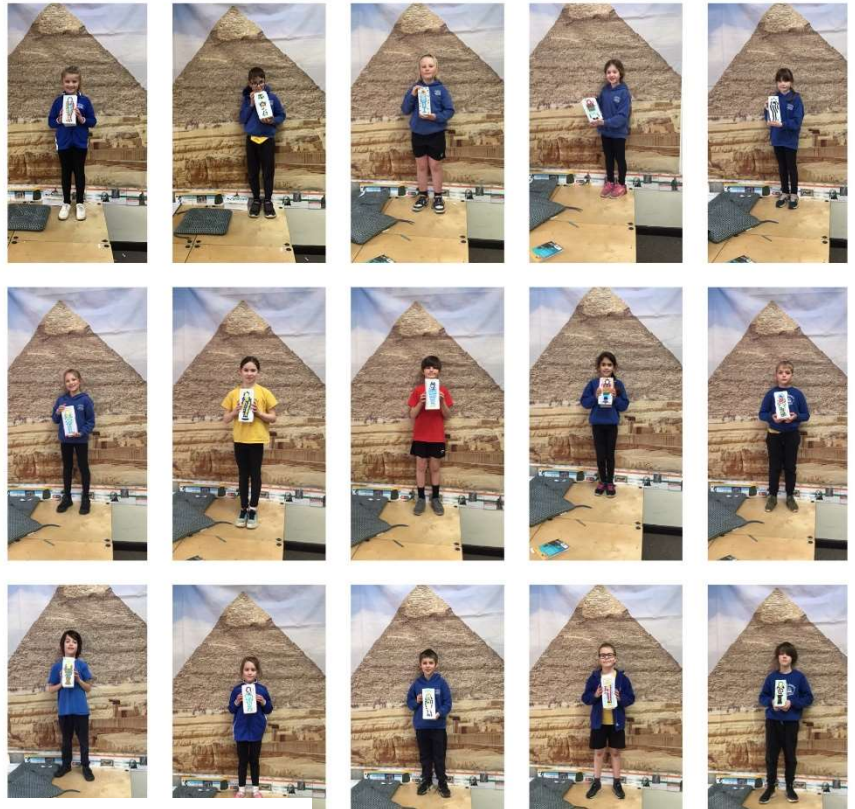

Diamond Class Newsletter

We have finished our Egyptian sarcophaguses with mosaic lids this week. They are all wonderfully unique and have taken a lot of determination and resilience to complete.

These will be displayed during parents' evenings for you to have a look at and they will come home along with the Egyptian masks at the end of the term.

21.03.2025

Coming up - Learning	Way to support at home
In maths, we will be looking at co-ordinates and translation. In English, we will be planning a story based on our class book 'The Ancient Egypt Sleepover' but told from a different point of view.	<ul data-bbox="858 398 1385 658" style="list-style-type: none">- Read at least 5 times a week.- Mathematics- TTRS or other times tables practise.- Spellings – these are now being sent home weekly to be practised before tests every Tuesday.