We had a wonderful day on our school trip to Bristol last Friday. After spending some time in the M Shed, seeing the Edward Colston statue and other exhibits related to Bristol's history, we walked along the harbourside to the Avon Gorge viewing point where we sketched the Clifton Suspension Bridge. We stopped to look at various aspects of Bristol life and history along the way: John Cabot's boat The Matthew, Cabot Tower, the S.S. Great Britain, the coloured houses and a Banksy (The Girl with the Pearl Earring). Despite the heat, the children were fantastic and we had a lot of fun!
