What a wonderful, Christmasy week it has been this week with our sale of Harry Potter goodies on Monday and two brilliant performances of our Christmas play, 'The Apprentice' on Tuesday and Thursday. It was great to see so many of you at the performances and I hope you enjoyed the fantastic singing, acting and narrating. The children did an amazing job and we are all very proud of them. Thank you for all your support with costumes and props – it is very much appreciated.

Next week we will be doing some Christmas/winter themed poetry and Christmas maths alongside watching Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets to end our topic, a Christmas party and singing at the coffee morning on Thursday. (As the film is a PG please let me know if you do not want your child to watch it.)

Reminders:

- Christmas Coffee Morning – Thursday 19th December
- Y3/4 Christmas party – Wednesday 18th December (Please bring a plate of party food)
- Continue to practise times tables – it is definitely making a difference!
- Read at least 5 x a week
- Mathematics homework
