

Class: Diamond Date of project: Term 5 and 6

Project aims:

English-Stories from other cultures, fables and myths

Maths – Number. statistics, geometry position and movement.

Geography – studying hills, mountains, volcanoes and natural disasters.

Science- Identifying and naming a variety of living things using classification. Being able to describe food chains using appropriate vocabulary.

PHSE – Investigate topical issues. Explore the importance of healthy minds and bodies.

RE – What religions do Japanese people follow? What can we learn from religion?

PE – The importance of being healthy and fit – healthy lifestyles. Athletics skills.

Computing – To be able to take digital images of nature.

Art –Japanese artist Takashi Murakami , Andy Goldsworthy 3D natural sculptures

DT – food technology – making traditional Japanese foods

Who and what lives where?

Significant texts

The Firework Maker’s Daughter

Stories from other cultures , fables and myths.

Immersion:

Celebrating the natural world, its beauty and how this can provide sensory experiences.

The classroom will look like a Japanese garden with a Zen flavour.

Japanese music and calming aromas will be in the background .

WOW Japanese art workshop	Writing Haiku poetry	Computing – Digital photography – the beauty of the natural world	Science Exploring food webs. Adaptation and classification of plants and animals	Studying the work of the artist Takashi Murakami and producing our own interpretations.	Project Outcome “A Taste of Japan” –children host a celebration of their learning
------------------------------	----------------------	---	--	---	---