

Jet Class Newsletter

Another busy week in Jet Class!

In English we have been exploring our new class text 'Lily's Garden of India' and writing detailed setting descriptions using expanded noun phrases and conjunctions. In Maths we have been developing our positional language and understanding of turns.

We have nearly completed our Rangoli flower collage using a range of skills and technique. They are looking beautiful, and we cannot wait to show you at our project outcome morning! In Dance we have been working in small groups to retell the story of 'The Three Little Pigs' we have travelled in different ways, used a range of basic actions, and listened and followed the music to retell the story.

Key dates coming up:

Tuesday 8th July and Thursday 10th July - Shuffle up mornings.

Jet Class Project Outcome - Friday 11th July @ 9.15

Coming up next week	Way to support at home
In English we are writing detailed instructions on how to plant a seed. In Maths we are recapping addition and subtraction skills including inverses and missing number equations.	Reading x 5 a week Practise spellings and times tables. Mathletics task: Position and direction.