Were the Romans Really Rotten?

History – This week we have focused on the Roman army and looked at the different roles, organisation and structure.

Maths –Scaling and proportion has been the learning for this week.

English- The children were given back their narratives and had a chance to respond to marking with a purple pen.

Music – Djembe Drumming music lesson learning new rhythms and patterns.

P.E – This week was Sports Day (see below photos) and was a huge success with all the children taking part in 5 throwing activities and 2+ different track events. In the afternoon the whole school was involved in a sponsored long distance run around the field!
