

Pearl Class Newsletter

Were the Romans Really Rotten?

It has been good to see the children back to school and with their usual enthusiasm. We have started to look at our new project based on the Romans – with our Wow Day planned for end of this week (photos to follow on next week's newsletter!).

Science – Life cycles and living things. We started this week with looking at the Life Cycle of plants.

Maths – Roman Numerals

English- Writing settings – Using the Varmints book and film clips.

Geography – Settlements, what was important to early settlers compared to what is important to people today.

Key dates coming up:

Djembe Music lessons start in school for the whole class – Thursday 30th for 10 weeks.

Concert to parents 2.45pm – 9th July

Road Safety Workshop/show – Friday 8th (in school)

Coming up next week Learning focused	Way to support at home (home learning)
