

Pearl Class Newsletter

Term 3

It was lovely to see so many of you at the Kilve Court Meeting and the children (and adults) are very excited about our trip!

English: The Myths are all finished and the children have edited with a friend and now I have a pile to keep me busy over half term!

Maths: Calculating percentages, fractions and decimals and finding their equivalents.

Science – Testing PH of different liquids and comparing them.

Art – Evaluations of their Mayan Hieroglyph prints.

History – The children were busy for a whole afternoon making a poster on the people they had

Coming up next week
Learning focused

Way to support at home (home learning)

Maths- Add and subtract fractions
P.E – Gymnastics
English- Genre: Newsreport
Book: The Alchemist
D/T - Structures
Computing-Systems and networks

Home learning –Mayan Headdress project is due March 9th. Remember this can be just a coloured, labelled design. Although, I know some of the children wanted to make an actual headdress!

TTRS and Mathletics – weekly please.

Spelling: ably and ibly spellings which will be tested on Monday 23rd February

Key dates coming up:

25th March - 27th March - Kilve Court Residential

1st April 9:30-10:10 am - Pearl Class Museum and Learning Share

Have a lovely half term everyone!