Ruby Class Newsletter

In maths, we have been practising position and direction. We have learnt about clockwise and anti-clockwise and linked this with our fractions to incorporate quarter, half and whole turns. Lots of the children need to practise left and right, so if you find an opportunity to practise this at home that would be great!

You may find this helpful....

In English, the children have planned a story about Traction Mans next adventure. In preparation for their story, they have practised sentence openers and orally rehearsed them with a partner to see if they can improve them.

In art, we have used pastels and charcoal to develop our drawing skills. We have tried blending using different amounts of pressure.
