

Topaz News

We have kicked off our new project of dinosaurs this week. We have been exploring the new roleplay area, painting pictures of dinosaurs, using adjectives to describe them and looking closely at fossils. We have learned a bit about Mary Anning, the famous fossil hunter.

Next Thursday is World Book Day so children can dress up as their favourite book character or wear something comfy to school like pyjamas. If they would like to bring a book to school that day, please make sure it is named.
