

PSE

Continue with diamond power and learning behaviours
SEAL -Going for Goals
Famous explorers determination
Listening to each other
Talk about ideas
Healthy food choices
Emerald powers

RE

What is special about the world?

Physical development

Dough disco
Formation of letters
Use of one-handed tools
Obstacle courses
Write dance- volcano
Tasting food from China

Literacy

Developing phonic skills as appropriate to the individual
Stories to share: Snowy Day, You and Me Little Bear, Meerkat Mail, Supertato
Non-fiction books about polar bears and penguins, farm animals, Chinese New year story
Writing : about characters, facts about polar bears, penguins
Tell stories in sequence and change them

Forest skills

Looking for changes, fire safety

WOWs

Wintery wonderland, film, visit Redwood in Spring, Farm visit

Expressive Art and Design

Role play – frozen palace/ farm shop
Colour mixing
Dragon paintings
Making models
Collage
Lion dance

British Values

Finding out about Chinese New Year.

Where would you go?

Knowledge and Understanding of the World

Developing curiosity- looking closely, looking for patterns and change
Looking for signs of change
Ice and melting
Programming the Bee Bot/ Blue Bot
Take pictures of changes with a digital camera
Animate melting ice
What do we know about hot and cold places in the world
Seasonal celebrations – Chinese New Year
Watching change in Spring
Plant seeds and watch

Mathematics

Embedding number skills – recognition/ counting skills
Calculation skills weighing
Positional language

Communication and Language

Talking about what we notice and explaining our reasoning
Verbalising questions
Role play – developing roles, talking and listening to each other

Questions to support thinking:

Where in the world would Olaf go?
What would Olaf see in the North and South Pole?
How can we stop the ice from melting?
The children will be encouraged to add their own questions.